The process of snowball the debt is start from the debt of minimum amount or the smallest debt. How does debt snowballing work? I have a passion for Finance, but I also have a passion for people. Maybe you're down to just 2 years with those minor changes! And, maybe that realization will pump you up just enough to DO IT! Play with the numbers. Choose one and run with it. I just put a ton of time into making this sheet as awesome as possible. I used the debt snowball just a few years back. It's easy to set up and easy to understand. Enter that number into the spreadsheet - right next to the cell that says, "One time startup payment". Or not so much? Then what? Debts snowball excel helps you to keep on the track of progress of your business and also to prioritize your important and valuable debts. I thought the same thing a few years back, which is why I eventually made one in Excel! But let me tell you, it isn't easy! There are so many variables, which leads to a ton of very lengthy formulas! Lucky for you, I was able to make one. Once the smallest debt paid off, then add this minimum payment to the next small debt and continue the process of snowball of the debts. Then, simply refresh the sheet and check out your chart! You'll see the line going down, which is a great visual of your debt going down! You can even print this and color it in as you go! It's a great reminder of your accomplishments for the month and if you're staying on track with your original plan. We LOVE to hear back from our readers! Did you find this free debt reduction spreadsheet in time? Well...that sucks. After graduation, I was not able to find a job that fully utilized my degree, but I still had a passion for Finance! So, I decided to focus my passion in the stock market. I studied Cash Flows, Balance Sheets, and Income Statements, put some money into the market and saw a good return on my investment. 2) Estimate the additional amount you can put toward your debt snowball each month If you made the minimum payments on everything, about how much extra would you have each month to put toward your debt snowball? Maybe $200? Commonly the debts are paid at their minimum rate until the extreme need of a credit card to be snowballed. Maybe you can sell some more stuff around the house to make some more money up front (heck, maybe you could even sell one of your cars!) Maybe you ask for a promotion at work Or, perhaps you can put some of your free time to work and make wayyy more at night or on the weekends! There's always a way to change your story. Then, maybe you'll MAKE it happen. Hopefully this free debt reduction spreadsheet will become part of your success story as well! Download Link: Free Debt Snowball Tool Download Also... Sidebar...If the above FREE tool doesn't have enough columns for your debt, we made a BIGGER one that's DOUBLE the size! You can buy it with this link for less than $5! Or, click the icon below! How Does Debt Snowballing Work? You may enlist all the debts that snowballed by you for the business purposes. It feels great to put big chunks of money toward debt each month! When I got started with my debt snowball, I was able to put mayyybe $200 toward my debts. You get early momentum when you pay off those smaller debts - it fires you up to keep going and to get after your debts with even more vengeance! When you pay off those smaller debts, it frees up MORE money to put toward the next debt. BUT, you still have a 5 year projection for when you will be debt free. Like I said before. What if that $1,000 were $2,000? By the end, I was throwing thousands of dollars at the debt each month! That's what the debt snowball can do! How to Make a Debt Snowball Spreadsheet So many people are searching, "How do I make a debt snowball spreadsheet?". 3) Estimate how much money you can put toward your debt snowball on Day 1 There are a few different ways for people to start off their debt snowball journey with a bang. Related: What is the Snowball Debt Plan? If you could scrounge up just $500, just think about the difference that could make in getting your debt snowball going! Enter that one-time payment amount into the debt snowball excel template Figure out how much you could put toward your debt immediately? Change "Debt 1" to your debt title - like "Amex credit card" or "Payday loan" or something like that, so you know what it is Enter the current balance Enter the minimum payment amount Finally, enter the interest rate Do this with all your debts (again, from smallest to largest!) and get the sheet completely filled out. In that cell, you'd click in it and then add at the end of the formula, "+4300" or "-200", or whatever your entry should be. There's always a way to do something different, to change course, to rewrite the story. The debt snowball is a method for paying off your debts. If you're committed to getting out of debt and you were looking for a free debt reduction spreadsheet, I hope you could this one immediately.
